PRESCOTT TOLK

Personal Bio

Performing comedy since college, Prescott Tolk recently made his national television debut on Comedy Central's Premium Blend. A Chicago comedy staple, Prescott brought his clever brand of punch lines to the Chicago Comedy Festival and the Toyota Comedy Festival in 2001. He was also a semi-finalist in Comedy Central's Laugh Riots Contest and the Grand Prize Winner of Stand-up NY's Hollywood Improv Contest. Time Out Chicago declared him a "Don't Miss."

In 2006 he became one of the founding members of the Chicago comedy collective Blerds.com, and has created a webisodic series for Warner Bros. 2.0 under the collective's banner.

Residing in Chicago, he travels to A-list clubs and colleges across the country where he kills audiences with his Jersey boy attitude and chill stoner mien.

In addition to performing stand-up, Prescott formerly produced and edited a network of comedy web sites for The Humor Network. He was once a beat reporter, too, covering Jersey City politics for The Hudson Reporter.
